

Foodservice Suppliers Association Australia Melbourne Viewpoint Lunch

Our first Melbourne Viewpoint lunch for 2012 will be held at The Angliss Restaurant, with guest speaker Peter Wright.

Join us for a special two course lunch incorporating beverages (not spirits) and hear Peter's views on food, the exciting year ahead for chefs and some of his experiences!

Peter is National President of the Australian Culinary Federation, the leading body representing chefs.

He has a highly decorated career being an advisor to the Beijing Olympics and Vancouver Winter Olympics, Project Manager to the Sydney Olympics Athlete's Village and Contract Manager to the Manchester Commonwealth Games.

Peter has also been a design consultant to the Melbourne Commonwealth Games Village, Davis Station Antarctica and NSW Sport & Recreation.

A gold medallist at the 2004 & 1992 Culinary Olympics he is active as a consultant to the industry.

With Peter's broad range of experience this is a lunch not to be missed!

When?: Wednesday March 21st 2012

Where?: The Angliss Restaurant, 550 Little Lonsdale Street, Melbourne
(William Angliss Institute)

Time?: Noon for a 12.30p.m. start to service

Cost?: members $60+GST, non-members $80+GST

Please let us know if you have special dietary requirements

BOOK EARLY TO AVOID DISAPPOINTMENT AS PLACES ARE LIMITED!

